

JIM LEITNER FIRST ASSISTANT

CRIMINAL JUSTICE CENTER
1201 FRANKLIN, SUITE 600
HOUSTON, TEXAS 77002-1901

PATRICIA R. LYKOS
DISTRICT ATTORNEY
HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS

Oct. 27, 2010
Public Information Office
Donna Hawkins
George Flynn
(713) 755-3320

News Conference: Major Enforcement Initiative

Thursday, Oct. 28

10 a.m.

District Attorney's Office, 6th Floor Conference Room
Harris County Criminal Justice Center
1201 Franklin, Suite 600, Houston

Houston, Tx -- Harris County District Attorney Patricia Lykos and officials of police agencies and support organizations will announce a major initiative in the collaborative campaign to improve enforcement of anti-DWI laws, and to significantly enhance safety for the traveling public. This advancement will have long-term implications for area drivers, as well as immediate impacts. Details will be available at the news conference.

Those planning to participate in the news conference include representatives of the Texas Department of Public Safety, Harris County Sheriff's Office, Houston Police Department, Pasadena Police Department, La Porte Police Department, Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission, Mothers Against Drunk Driving, Bay Area Council on Drugs and Alcohol, and the Houston-Galveston Area Council. (end)

