DA Lykos Launches Two New Initiatives for Crime Prevention Month

Harris County District Attorney Pat Lykos will announce her office's release of "Computer Cop" Internet Monitoring Software and the launch of the "District Attorney's Most Wanted" list to highlight Crime Prevention Month at a press conference Wednesday.

WHO: Harris County District Attorney Pat Lykos

WHAT: Press Conference to announce "Computer Cop" software and the "District Attorney's Most Wanted" fugitive list

Computer Cop is Internet monitoring software designed to protect young people from cyber predators.

The "District Attorney's Most Wanted" list will be posted on the district attorney's website to alert the public to dangerous fugitives and enlist their help in tracking them down to face justice.

WHEN: Wednesday, October 12 at 10:30 am

WHERE: Harris County Criminal Justice Center, 1201 Franklin, 6th floor Conference Room

All news media are invited to attend.
