District Attorney Announces Promotions

(Houston, Texas) District Attorney Kenneth Magidson announced the promotions today of Donna Goode to Chief of the Professional Development Bureau, and Kate Dolan to Chief of Felony Trial Court Division D.

Goode has been Chief of the Public Integrity Division. In her new position, she will take over the Professional Development Bureau from current Chief Ted Wilson, who is retiring. This assignment places her in charge of all misdemeanor courts. Goode will also be responsible for training of prosecutors and staff.

Goode has been with the office for nearly 24 years, and she looks forward to the new challenges that the promotion entails.

Kate Dolan has been a prosecutor in the Major Fraud Division. As Division Chief, she will now be responsible for four felony courts (consisting of state district courts 232, 248, 262, and 263). She replaces Julian Ramirez, who will head up the Public Integrity Division.

Dolan believes that her years of service as a prosecutor and the large number of cases that she has tried will aid her in her new position.
